

Dear Restaurant Owners:

In light of Governor Abbott's Emergency Order issued on March 19, 2020, the Burnet Economic Development Corporation (BEDC) would like to hear from you regarding how this will impact your business and how the BEDC may be able to help during these difficult times.

Please contact City Manager David Vaughn and share with him any thoughts or concerns you may have, including any ideas on what may be needed to get through the weeks ahead. Mr. Vaughn can be reached at:

The restaurant industry is our highest paying sales tax category and is extremely important to the economic health of our community. Your input is essential as we work through these unprecedented times.

Sincerely,

Cary Johnson

President, BEDC
